BATTLE TO SAVE POLICE STATION

BARKING and Dagenham Council is urging residents to sign a petition launched by an MP to save Dagenham police station which is threatened with closure.

More than 2,500 people have signed the petition, launched by Jon Cruddas, who joined Barking and Dagenham councillors, as well as residents in a show of unity outside the Rainham Road South station to oppose the latest closure bid.

Under proposals announced by the Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime (MOPAC), the station would be sold as part of cost-cutting measures imposed upon the Met, leaving just one 24-hour counter in each of London's 32 boroughs.

Council leader Darren Rodwell wrote to Mayor of London, Sadiq Khan, raising concerns about a Met Police trial involving Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge, and Havering sharing resources.

Cllr Rodwell said: "We are sending out an SOS – save our station. I am completely opposed to any closure in our borough and will do all we can as a council to fight to keep it. I understand the difficult situation Government cuts have put our mayor in but at a time when crime is on the rise, we need more visible policing not less and closing Dagenham police station is not going to give our residents the reassurances they need.

"I am urging as many people as possible to sign the petition. It's important we make sure the voice of the people of Barking and Dagenham is heard."

The police station opened in December 1961 and underwent refurbishment in 2005.

It was threatened with closure in 2013 but survived thanks to community action.

Mr Cruddas, Labour MP for Dagenham and Rainham, said: "We did it before and we can do it again. Now is not the time to be cutting back on policing and I will be fighting the proposals all the way.

"Dagenham police station is the most frequently used service in the borough and while I understand cost savings need to be made, it is the residents that would feel the sting of this station closing and you can't put a price on residents' safety. I call on all everyone to sign the petition and help save this vital service – it only takes a minute but its impact could last a lifetime."

Barking police station, on Ripple Road, closed to the public in 2014 and was sold as part of previous cost-saving Met reforms.

For more information visit www.lbbd.gov.uk/sos. The petition will close on September 21.

Appeal after biker is hurt in road collision

A MAN in his 20s has been critically injured in a road collision in Dagenham.

The motorcyclist was injured when a car and a motorbike collided in Green Lane, at its junction with Castle Lane and Greenway.

Police were called to the scene by the London Ambulance Service at 11.30pm on Wednesday, September 6. Both parties stopped at the scene, police said, and nobody has been arrested. The 24-year-old biker is being treated in an east London hospital.

The Met Police said they were particularly keen to hear from those who assisted following the collision and those at the nearby bus stop, who may have witnessed the incident taking place.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Chadwell Heath Traffic Garage on 020 8597 4874.

Tickets to UK's top luxury bridal show

BRIDES The Show, the UK's leading luxury bridal show, will again bring to life the pages of Brides magazine for three days of inspirational and unrivalled wedding planning – and we have 25 pairs of tickets to give away to the event.

Returning to the Business Design Centre in Islington, London, from September 29 to October 1, the event will bring together more than 150 suppliers showcasing the best of bridal.

Opening Friday night highlights so far include an exclusive exhibition of couture gowns by award-winning British fashion designer-of-the-moment, Giles Deacon, who will also take part in a Q&A session with Brides editor, Jade Beer; a chance to network with Matt Porteous, official photographer at Pippa Middleton and James Matthews's wedding, and appearances from bloggers Lydia Elise Millen, Alessandra Steinherr and Natasha Corrett.

Expect the freshest ideas, the highest quality craftsmanship and the very latest trends. With Goldsmiths as headline sponsor and Bobbi Brown Cosmetics as its make-up partner, exhibitors include Amanda Wakeley, Firmdale Hotels, Jo Malone London, Estée Lauder Cosmetics, Suzanne Neville Ltd, The May Fair Hotel, The Wedding Music Company and TY Couture Cakes.

The stunning feature areas and spectacular exhibitor line-up will showcase everything from wedding gown designers to florists, venues, photographers, stationery, cakes, travel, jewellery and food and drink.

The daily Paris in Love catwalk show, styled by the Brides fashion team, will take brides-to-be and guests on a journey through the changing four seasons of a Parisian garden.

For more information and tickets visit www.bridestheshow.co.uk.

For your chance to win one of 25 pairs of tickets to the show, which can be used on any one day of the event, answer this question.

Council in call for Irma support from residents

WALTHAM Forest Council is calling for emergency support from the community for its twinned regions that have been devastated by Hurricane Irma in the Caribbean.

The borough has been formally twinned with Antigua and Barbuda and Dominica since 1999 and an active twinning association meets in the town hall monthly, and every year the mayor takes on the role of patron.

The Government of Antigua and Barbuda has declared a state of emergency and all efforts in the next few days will be concentrating on sourcing emergency relief for Barbuda.

The islands are also bracing themselves for the next storm, Hurricane Jose, which is expected to hit over the weekend.

A total of 14 people have died and this number is expected to rise.

The Antigua and Barbuda High Commission in London has made arrangements for fundraising to help with the relief effort.

The council is encouraging anyone who would like to make a donation to use the Rebuild Barbuda Appeal Fund in London to do so through the Royal Bank of Scotland's Ascension Trust (Charity #1127204) account (number 10019655, sort code 16-00-93, reference Rebuild Barbuda Appeal Fund).

Student's competition win to boost business

A 27-YEAR-OLD product design student has won a competition run by Shell for an innovative way to reduce CO2 emissions.

After realising the injustice of the global food system and a common passion for sustainability, Giuseppe Baidoo and business partners Samson Opayemi, 23, and Valerie Akano, 25, who met at Barking and Dagenham College, started to think about innovative ways to reduce food waste.

Giuseppe said: "In July 2016 we founded Ooze Drinks, a sustainable company with the aim of reducing food waste by saving misshapen and surplus fruits and transforming them into sustainable drinks.

"The £5,000 from Shell will allow us to improve the efficiency of our business"

Jail for dealer caught with 57 wraps of crack

Loughton man found guilty by Essex jury

A DRUG dealer found with 57 wraps of crack cocaine has been jailed for two-and-a-half years.

Chelmsford Crown Court heard 19-year-old Forrest Bentick was seen looking suspicious by police officers in the Valley Hill area of Loughton on April 6.

As soon as he noticed the officers he ran off, but was pursued to his home.

He was searched and found to be in possession £490 in cash.

During a further search of his home officers found 57 wraps of crack. Bentick, of Valley Hill, Loughton, was charged with possessing a Class A drug with intent to supply and possessing a Class A drug.

He denied the charges, but was found guilty following a trial.

He was jailed on Thursday

PRISON: Forrest Bentick

September 7, and the court ordered the forfeiture and destruction of the drugs. Following the sentencing, investigating officer PC Jack Etheridge of the West Operation Raptor team, said: "We are pleased to see that our hard work is paying off with yet another drug dealer locked up for a significant period of time.

"Our message can't be clearer - if you are dealing drugs in Essex it is only a matter of time before Operation Raptor come knocking on your door.

"We will continue to tirelessly pursue those dealing drugs in our county and like Bentick ensure we do all they can to get them locked up."

Operation Raptor teams were set up in the north, south and west of the county to target those involved in drug and gang-related crime.

If you have information about drug or gang-related crime in your community, call Essex Police on 101.

Alternatively call the Crimestoppers hotline anonymously on 0800 555 111 if you wish to pass on information.

Eastland Meadows COUNTRY PARK

Now open all year long

We are a privately owned park undergoing re-development into an exclusive adult only site for those who expect quality and excellent service. We offer a superb range of holiday homes for sale as well as our own holiday homes for rent, for short breaks to extended holiday stays.

Situated in a quiet corner of the Blackwater conservation area...

near the popular towns of Maldon and Burnham-on-Crouch. Tucked away in the countryside yet close to the sea. One of the driest and warmest areas in the UK. Watch the wonderful small wildlife on the park. Hours of walks around the Blackwater estuary.
